FREE RESOURCES

Welcome to the EVERTON COLLECTION

The EVERTON COLLECTION Schools and Learning is a free resource for teachers and pupils at Key Stages 1- 3.

What is the EVERTON COLLECTION?

The Everton Collection is one of the greatest collections of football memorabilia in the world. It contains an amazing variety of objects and documents recording the history of Everton Football Club and the social history of Liverpool from 1880 to the present day. The Collection is currently stored at Liverpool Record Office in Liverpool Central Library.

WHAT DO WE DO?

We provide fun and engaging resources that use football to support cross-curricular learning in Literacy, History, Citizenship and ICT.

We offer:

- Online access to learning resources including interactive whiteboard lessons
- Online access to thousands of images from the Everton Collection and guidelines about how to use them to support learning
- A free loan box and outreach service to schools in Liverpool
- Fun, 'hands-on' learning sessions and tours

Our learning resources encourage children to develop skills which are essential across the curriculum. They inspire children to think creatively and communicate effectively.

This brochure is a brief introduction to the learning activities that we provide. It tells you where to find further information and how to make a booking.

ONLINE LEARNING

Visit The Everton Collection website to become a member of our free online learning community. On our website you can view a variety of learning resources including interactive whiteboard lessons.

Register to use Storyteller, a unique way to encourage your pupils to take part in writing activities. Alternatively, use My Collection and work with your class to create and share your own online exhibition. With a database of thousands of images available online, there are endless learning opportunities for you and your pupils to explore.

TREASURE CHESTS

Treasure Chests contain fascinating objects to help your pupils learn about the past.

Each box contains replica objects, sound clips and dressing up materials which help to create a fun, multi-sensory learning experience. They also contain cross-curricular lesson plans for Key Stages 1 and 2. Loan boxes are available free of charge to schools in Liverpool.

LEARNING SESSIONS

We deliver a variety of interactive learning sessions at venues across Liverpool.

Our Creative Learning Officer can also deliver a session at your school. For further information about our programme of learning sessions please visit our website.
